The Code of Respect

The essence of good discipline is RESPECT.
Respect for authority and respect for others;
Respect for self and respect for rules.

It is an attitude that begins at home, is reinforced in school, and is applied throughout life.

The Code of Respect creates a recipe for success! The code will help you throughout your life and throughout college. This means to respect yourself and others and to treat them the way you want to be treated, and to be respectful at all times to your elders, friends, and neighboring community. It will make this society a better place. Agassi Prep Middle School will begin reciting the Code of Respect every Monday and Friday during our morning assemblies for the second semester. We are a TEAM!

Semester I Final Exams

January 10th-12th

NO MAKE UP EXAMS are available!

TARDY: If you are tardy you will not be allowed to take your exam for that period.

Students who are late must report to the cafeteria.

The bell rings at 7:55am. All students must be in their classroom by 8:00 am.

Please arrive early and eat a healthy breakfast!

Ms. Rhyanne Wheat

Ms. Rhyanne Wheat is a very cool person. She was born in Nottingham, England. She enjoys teaching science. She currently teaches 6th and 8th grade science. Ms. Wheat has two younger sisters, who are in the 8th and 9th grade. Her parents are from England but her mom's family is Jamaican. Ms. Wheat moved to America at age 13, she went to high school in Virginia and attended college at William and Mary. Ms. Wheat is currently planning to getting married on December 22, 2012. She likes to work at Agassi because there are so many great opportunities for students to participate in college programs and activities. "Preparation is important because perfect planning prevents pathetic performance."
